As mayor of Nashville, it's an honor and pleasure to hear (ISC)² Security Congress has chosen to meet in our city this fall for its 13th annual conference.

Nashville is a vibrant and diverse city, known for its rich history, beautiful architecture, and thriving business community. We take great pride in our city and are always eager to share it with visitors. Rest assured, here in Nashville we are committed to establishing an inclusive, welcoming city where every single resident and visitor feels safe, supported, and respected. We recognize that it's important we celebrate inclusion and remember to embrace our neighbors.

When you arrive, I encourage you to explore our city and take advantage of all that Nashville has to offer.

Whether it's visiting our world-renowned museums, taking in a show at The Grand Ole Opry, or enjoying some of Nashville's Hot Chicken, you are sure to find something to love in Music City.

Thank you again for choosing Nashville for your Lead with Confidence conference. We look forward to welcoming the (ISC)² community in October. In the meantime, be safe and be well.

Yours truly,
